Silanus the Christian. London, 1906. 3453.153

"The belief in the eternal unity of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, in the supernatural but non-miraculous incarnation of the Son as Jesus Christ, and in Christ's supernatural but non-miraculous resurrection after He had offered Himself up as a sacrifice for the sins of the world, is commonly supposed to be rendered impossible by the disbelief [in the miraculous element of the Bible]. This book is written to shew that there is no such impossibility." — Preface.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

LOWELL INSTITUTE LECTURES open to the public will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript. They are also briefly described on the second and third pages following.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets for this Series is limited only by the capacity of the Hall.

METHOD OF TICKET DISTRIBUTION.

Tickets are distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows:

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course, to the CURATOR OF THE LOWELL INSTITUTE, 491 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a SEPARATE STAMPED, ADDRESSED ENVELOPE FOR EACH TICKET AND EACH COURSE. All such envelopes will be filled or placed on file, but, in general, tickets for any Course will not be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins. When tickets are much in demand, ONLY ONE TICKET WILL BE SENT TO ANY ONE APPLICANT.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained at the Office of the Lowell

Institute, 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 A.M., and 4 P.M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left-over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope; but no tickets will be given out at the Office of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, EXCHANGE their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for TICKETS GOOD FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE AND FOR RESERVED SEATS.

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all reserved-seat tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining seats. The envelopes are then shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may, as stated above, EXCHANGE their first-lecture Admission tickets, at tables in the vestibules, for envelopes drawn by lot, containing COURSE tickets good for RESERVED SEATS.

Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering together their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

A limited number of applicants having NO TICKETS OF ANY KIND may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and generally good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule, at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or to the Office, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lecturers in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

THE SEVENTH COURSE will be eight lectures by PROFESSOR GEORGE E. WOODBERRY, on Poetic Energy. I. Poetic Energy. II. Marlowe. III. Camöens. IV. Byron. V. Gray. VI. Tasso. VII. Lucretius. VIII. Inspiration. On Tuesdays and Fridays, at 8 P.M., beginning January 8, 1907.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established in the Institute of Technology a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the Faculty of the Institute of Technology. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years, and pass the examinations, certificates are given.

The school is open only to those who are ambitious and willing to study.

The present school year begins October 1, 1906. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week is required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight is attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES IN THE CITY OF BOSTON

IN THE

LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Opened to the Public in 1839.)

PROGRAM FOR 1906-1907.

THE TRUSTEE of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-eighth — season, five distinct Series are provided, to all of which Admission is FREE (but only under certain conditions), as follows:

- I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL, — 491 Boylston Street.
- II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN, under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE, — mainly under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.
- IV. EVENING COURSES FOR WORKINGMEN, under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.
- V. PUBLIC LECTURES IN KING'S CHAPEL ON CURRENT PROBLEMS IN THEOLOGY, under the Auspices of the Harvard Divinity School and by members of its Faculty.

Further information in regard to the several Series is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

LOWELL INSTITUTE LECTURES open to the public will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript. They are also briefly described on the second and third pages following.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets for this Series is limited only by the capacity of the Hall.

METHOD OF TICKET DISTRIBUTION.

Tickets are distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows:

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course, to the CURATOR OF THE LOWELL INSTITUTE, 491 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

 Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a SEPARATE STAMPED, ADDRESSED ENVELOPE FOR EACH TICKET AND EACH COURSE. All such envelopes will be filled or placed on file, but, in general, tickets for any Course will not be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins. When tickets are much in demand, ONLY ONE TICKET WILL BE SENT TO ANY ONE APPLICANT.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained at the Office of the Lowell

Institute, 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 A.M., and 4 P.M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left-over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope; but no tickets will be given out at the Office of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, EXCHANGE their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for TICKETS GOOD FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE AND FOR RESERVED SEATS.

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all reserved-seat tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining seats. The envelopes are then shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may, as stated above, EXCHANGE their first-lecture Admission tickets, at tables in the vestibules, for envelopes drawn by lot, containing COURSE tickets good for RESERVED SEATS.

Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering together their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

A limited number of applicants having NO TICKETS OF ANY KIND may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and generally good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule, at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or to the Office, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lecturers in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established in the Institute of Technology a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for day courses of instruction.

and pass the examinations, certificates are given.

The school is open only to those who are ambitious and willing to study.

CURRENT LIBRARY NEWS.

NOTICE RESPECTING FINES.

Beginning with February 1, 1907, all fines due from persons under 16 years of age will be cancelled at the end of six months from the date when the fine first became due.

Before this, the use of a library card has been withheld without limit of time, unless all fines due upon it were paid. Hereafter, in the case of children (under 16) the card can be used after six months, and the fines will then be cancelled.

In the case of children (under 16) this change substitutes for the payment of a fine, the loss of library privileges for a definite and limited time, namely, six months. Those who do not wish to lose the use of their library cards may pay the fines instead.

In applying the new rule, any person now over 16 years of age, but who was under 16 when a fine was incurred, prior to February 1, 1907, and who has been deprived of library privileges for at least six months, may have the fine remitted and receive a clear card; or may have the benefit of this rule whenever the six months' period of deprivation is completed.

It will be understood that this new rule relates entirely to fines incurred on account of failure to return books within the required time, and not to sums due for loss of books, or on account of the mutilating or damaging of books while in the possession of a borrower.

PROGRAM FOR 1906-1907.

THE TRUSTEE of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-eighth — season, five distinct Series are provided, to all of which Admission is FREE (but only under certain conditions), as follows:

- I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL, — 491 Boylston Street.
- II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN, under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE, — mainly under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.
- IV. EVENING COURSES FOR WORKINGMEN, under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.
- V. PUBLIC LECTURES IN KING'S CHAPEL ON CURRENT PROBLEMS IN THEOLOGY, under the Auspices of the Harvard Divinity School and by members of its Faculty.

Further information in regard to the several Series is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

LOWELL INSTITUTE LECTURES open to the public will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript. They are also briefly described on the second and third pages following.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets for this Series is limited only by the capacity of the Hall.

METHOD OF TICKET DISTRIBUTION.

Tickets are distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows:

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course, to the CURATOR of the LOWELL INSTITUTE, 491 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

 Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a SEPARATE STAMPED, ADDRESSED ENVELOPE FOR EACH TICKET AND EACH COURSE. All such envelopes will be filled or placed on file, but, in general, tickets for any Course will not be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins. When tickets are much in demand, ONLY ONE TICKET WILL BE SENT TO ANY ONE APPLICANT.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained at the Office of the Lowell

Institute, 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 A.M., and 4 P.M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left-over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope; but no tickets will be given out at the Office of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, EXCHANGE their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for TICKETS GOOD FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE AND FOR RESERVED SEATS.

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all reserved-seat tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining seats. The envelopes are then shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may, as stated above, EXCHANGE their first-lecture Admission tickets, at tables in the vestibules, for envelopes drawn by lot, containing COURSE tickets good for RESERVED SEATS.

Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering together their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

A limited number of applicants having NO TICKETS OF ANY KIND may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and generally good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule, at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or to the Office, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lecturers in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

THE TENTH COURSE will be six lectures by CHARLES SEDGWICK MINOT, D.Sc., LL.D., etc., James Stillman Professor of Comparative Anatomy in the Harvard Medical School, on The Problem of Age, Growth and Death. I. The Conditions of Old Age. II. The Cellular Changes of Age. III. Growth. IV. Significance of Organic Structure. Senescence and Rejuvenation. V. Regeneration and Death. VI. The Four Laws of Age. On Mondays and Thursdays, at 8 P.M., beginning March 4.

THE ELEVENTH COURSE will be eight lectures by RUSSELL H. CHITTENDEN, LL.D., Professor of Physiological Chemistry and Director of the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University, on The Nutrition of Man. I. Foods and Their Digestion. II. Absorption, Assimilation and the Processes of Metabolism. III. The Balance of Nutrition. IV. Source of the Energy of Muscle Work, with Some Theories of Proteid Metabolism. V. Dietary Habits and True Food Requirements. VI. Further Experiments and Observations Bearing on True Food Requirements. VII. The Effect of Low Proteid Diet on High Proteid Animals. VIII. Practical Applications with Some Additional Data. On Tuesdays and Fridays, at 8 P.M., beginning March 5.

THE TWELFTH COURSE is postponed to next season.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established in the Institute of Technology a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

These are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of higher positions, but are unable to attend of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for day courses of instruction.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the Faculty of the Institute of Technology. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years, and pass the examinations, certificates are given.

The school is open only to those who are ambitious and willing to study.

The present school year begins October 1, 1906. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week is required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight is attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

A circular giving more detailed information may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Director, Lowell Institute Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The following lines contain a brief summary of the rules governing the use of the Library, the full text of which in pamphlet form may be had free. Every user of the Library is expected to be familiar with them.

The use of the Library is free to all at seasonable hours.

Citizens, students, temporary sojourners, officers and men of the Army and Navy, and certain other persons may become card holders. Special privileges are granted also to teachers and clergymen, and loans of books are made upon deposit.

Application made in writing, with reference or student's certificate, secures a Library Card entitling the holder to draw books. Card holders must notify Registration Clerk of change of address. Cards are non-transferable and revocable, and registration may be cancelled. Lost cards entail penalty; responsibility continues. Cards must be presented and stamped regularly with each book drawn or returned.

Cards entitle the holder to two books for seven or fourteen days without renewal. Books are not transferable. There are limitations governing the issue of Seven-day books.

There are restrictions upon the lending for Home Use of certain books. These restrictions are shown in the Catalogue.

Any person may use books within the Library upon signing the proper form of application, promising to return them before leaving the room.

Fines of two cents a day and twenty-five cents per two weeks extra, for four weeks, and the full cost of replacing books, with loss of privileges until paid, are the penalty for overdetection. No exemption is granted except to children. Further detention is punishable by law.

Books must be used with care and all damage made good. Violations of this rule are punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Books must be returned when called for and are to be taken from the shelves only by employees, except in the open reference collections.

Conversation and other abuses are forbidden under penalty of expulsion. Damage to catalogues is punishable. Attendants must enforce the rules but may be reported for incivility.

The Central Library is open daily except holidays, from 9 A.M. till 10 P.M., Sundays, from 2 till 10 P.M., except that the summer closing hour is 9 P.M. both on week days and Sundays. The Branches are open at the hours posted therein.

HOUSE RULES.

A Coat Room is provided where garments and packages may be checked; but the Trustees assume no responsibility.

Dogs are not allowed in the building. Smoking is prohibited.

Employees are not, except in emergency, allowed to receive visitors during working hours.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The following lines contain a brief summary of the rules governing the use of the Library, the full text of which in pamphlet form may be had free. Every user of the Library is expected to be familiar with them.

The use of the Library is free to all at seasonable hours.

Citizens, students, temporary sojourners, officers and men of the Army and Navy, and certain other persons may become card holders. Special privileges are granted also to teachers and clergymen, and loans of books are made upon deposit.

Application made in writing, with reference or student's certificate, secures a Library Card entitling the holder to draw books. Card holders must notify Registration Clerk of change of address. Cards are non-transferable and revocable, and registration may be cancelled. Lost cards entail penalty; responsibility continues. Cards must be presented and stamped regularly with each book drawn or returned.

Cards entitle the holder to two books for seven or fourteen days without renewal. Books are not transferable. There are limitations governing the issue of Seven-day books.

There are restrictions upon the lending for Home Use of certain books. These restrictions are shown in the Catalogue.

Any person may use books within the Library upon signing the proper form of application, promising to return them before leaving the room.

Fines of two cents a day and twenty-five cents per two weeks extra, for four weeks, and the full cost of replacing books, with loss of privileges until paid, are the penalty for overdetection. No exemption is granted except to children. Further detention is punishable by law.

Books must be used with care and all damage made good. Violations of this rule are punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Books must be returned when called for and are to be taken from the shelves only by employees, except in the open reference collections.

Conversation and other abuses are forbidden under penalty of expulsion. Damage to catalogues is punishable. Attendants must enforce the rules but may be reported for incivility.

The Central Library is open daily except holidays, from 9 A.M. till 10 P.M., Sundays, from 2 till 10 P.M., except that the summer closing hour is 9 P.M. both on week days and Sundays. The Branches are open at the hours posted therein.

HOUSE RULES.

A Coat Room is provided where garments and packages may be checked; but the Trustees assume no responsibility.

Dogs are not allowed in the building. Smoking is prohibited.

Employees are not, except in emergency, allowed to receive visitors during working hours.

If articles are lost or found in the Library Building the fact should be reported immediately to the Officer in charge of the Issue Department.

Further information in regard to the several Series is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

LOWELL INSTITUTE LECTURES open to the public will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript. They are also briefly described on the second and third pages following.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets for this Series is limited only by the capacity of the Hall.

☞ METHOD OF TICKET DISTRIBUTION.

Tickets are distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows:

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course to the CURATOR OF THE LOWELL INSTITUTE, 491 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

☞ Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send A SEPARATE STAMPED, ADDRESSED ENVELOPE FOR EACH

TICKET AND EACH COURSE. All such envelopes will be filled or placed on file, but, in general, tickets for any Course will not be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins. When tickets are much in demand, ONLY ONE TICKET WILL BE SENT TO ANY ONE APPLICANT.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained at the Office of the Lowell Institute, 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 A.M., and 4 P.M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left-over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope; but no tickets will be given out at the Office of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, EXCHANGE their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for TICKETS GOOD FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE and FOR RESERVED SEATS.

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all reserved-seat tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining seats. The envelopes are then shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may, as stated above, EXCHANGE their first-lecture Admission tickets, at tables in the vestibule, for envelopes, drawn by lot, containing COURSE tickets good for RESERVED SEATS.

☞ Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering together their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

A limited number of applicants having no TICKETS of ANY KIND may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and generally good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule, at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or to the Office, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lecturers in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established in the Institute of Technology a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

These are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend day courses of instruction.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the Faculty of the Institute of Technology. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years, and pass the examinations, certificates are given.

The school is open only to those who are ambitious and willing to study.

The present school year begins October 7, 1907. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week is required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight is attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

☞ A circular giving more detailed information may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Director, School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

2. Field Lessons in Zoölogy. By MR. ALBERT P. MORSE.

3. Field Lessons in Geology. By PROF. GEORGE H. BARTON.

V. LECTURES IN KING'S CHAPEL ON CURRENT PROBLEMS IN THEOLOGY.

FREE LECTURES maintained by the Lowell Institute, under the Auspices of the Harvard Divinity School and by members of its Faculty, will be given this year on the same plan as last year. Detailed announcements will be made later.

VI. COLLEGIATE COURSES.

Under the Auspices of Harvard University.

Believing that there are many young men and women who would be glad of an opportunity to get the broad intellectual outlook to be obtained from college studies, the Lowell Institute, co-operating with Harvard University, proposes to offer to the public a few of the courses now taken at Harvard in the Freshmen and Sophomore years. The plan is to give each year a couple of courses to be, as far as possible, identical with those given at Harvard, taught by the same professors, and conducted in the same way, with the same tests and final examination, followed by marks on the same scale. A mark of any grade obtained in these courses will therefore be equivalent to the same mark obtained in a similar course at Harvard. The instruction will be given in the evening, from 8 to 9 o'clock, in the new buildings of the Harvard Medical School, and will be free of charge.

The courses to be offered during the coming year are: One in General European History, on Mondays and Wednesdays, by Professor Haskins, that being the course that forms the foundation for all further study of History at Harvard; the other in English Literature and Composition, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, by Mr. Copeland, University Lecturer on English Literature. In addition to the two lectures a week by the instructor, there will be a third exercise, in which the students will meet the assistants in small sections for the purpose of written tests, discussion and conference. The courses will begin about the 7th of October and continue until June with vacations at Christmas and in the spring. In subsequent years, courses on other subjects will be given, the courses changing each year.

The courses will be open to men and women, and a student may take either one course or both. But no persons will be allowed to attend a course unless qualified to profit by it; and for that purpose, if under twenty years of age, they must have graduated from a high school or an institution of equal grade; and if over twenty must have so graduated, or show in some other way a sufficient degree of education. For this purpose, applicants will be required to fill out blanks stating their name, age, schooling, the kind and extent of reading they have done, and other facts that will make it possible to determine their qualifications to proceed. If the Institute is satisfied of the applicant's proficiency, a ticket of admission to the course will be sent.

If a student fails to show sufficient aptitude or diligence, or to attend both lectures and sections with substantial regularity, he or she may be excluded from the course. Anyone who completes the course and passes the examination satisfactorily will be given a certificate thereof.

Anyone desiring to join the course can obtain an application blank by writing to the Lowell Institute Collegiate Courses, Care of the Harvard Medical School, Longwood Avenue, Boston, enclosing a stamped envelope. Further information may be obtained by writing to the same address.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

LOWELL INSTITUTE LECTURES open to the public will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript. They are also briefly described on the second and third pages following.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets for this Series is limited only by the capacity of the Hall.

☐ METHOD OF TICKET DISTRIBUTION.

Tickets are distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows:

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course to the CURATOR OF THE LOWELL INSTITUTE, 491 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

☐ Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a SEPARATE STAMPED, ADDRESSED ENVELOPE FOR EACH

TICKET AND EACH COURSE. All such envelopes will be filled or placed on file, but, in general, tickets for any Course will not be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins. When tickets are much in demand, ONLY ONE TICKET WILL BE SENT TO ANY ONE APPLICANT.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained at the Office of the Lowell Institute, 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 A.M., and 4 P.M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left-over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope; but no tickets will be given out at the Office of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, EXCHANGE their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for TICKETS GOOD FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE AND FOR RESERVED SEATS.

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all reserved-seat tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining seats. The envelopes are then shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may, as stated above, EXCHANGE their first-lecture Admission tickets, at tables in the vestibule, for envelopes, drawn by lot, containing COURSE tickets good for RESERVED SEATS.

Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering together their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

A limited number of applicants having NO TICKETS OF ANY KIND may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and generally good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule, at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or to the Office, for the benefit of other applicants.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established in the Institute of Technology a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

These are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend day courses of instruction.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the Faculty of the Institute of Technology. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years, and pass the examinations, certificates are given.

The school is open only to those who are ambitious and willing to study.

The present school year begins October 7, 1907. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week is required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight is attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

A circular giving more detailed information may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Director, School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

VI. COLLEGIATE COURSES.

Under the Auspices of Harvard University.

Believing that there are many young men and women who would be glad of an opportunity to get the broad intellectual outlook to be obtained from college studies, the Lowell Institute, co-operating with Harvard University, now offers to the public a few of the courses taken at Harvard in the Freshmen and Sophomore years. There will be given each year a couple of courses identical, as far as possible, with those at Harvard, taught by the same professors, and conducted in the same way, with the same tests and final examination, followed by marks on the same scale. The instruction will be given in the evening, in the new buildings of the Harvard Medical School, and will be free of charge.

The courses given during the present year are already full. They are: One in General European History, on Mondays and Wednesdays, by Professor Haskins; the other in English Literature and Composition, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, by Mr. Copeland. The courses to be given next year will be announced later.

The courses will be open to men and women, and a student may take either one course or both. But no persons will be allowed to attend a course unless qualified to profit by it; and prepared to do all the reading or other work required, and to take the final examination.

A circular giving further information can be obtained by writing to the Lowell Institute Collegiate Courses, Care of the Harvard Medical School, Longwood Avenue, Boston, and enclosing a stamped envelope.

SOLOMON LINCOLN.

Mr. Solomon Lincoln, President of the Board of Trustees, died October 15. The Board at its meeting, Friday, October 18, took action as follows:

"The Trustees of the Boston Public Library desire to put upon their Records their high estimation of Mr. Solomon Lincoln, for ten years a Trustee, and for eight years the President of the Board.

"A man of large affairs, he was always ready to give his presence and advice upon everything relating to the welfare of the Library; with good judgment and legal ability he helped us to decide all the difficult questions which arose at our meetings; he presided with rare dignity, impartiality, and genial temper, and we regard his death as a great personal and public loss."
